

Welcome to the 1st

Family Learning Tutor Newsletter

Welcome to the first edition of the Family Learning Tutor newsletter. We plan to distribute this termly to keep you up to date with what's happening at Family Learning and Adult Education.

Each term we will inform you about developments in the service and any training taking place. This edition includes an overview of the resources available for you.

If you have any comments or suggestions for future editions please let Emma know (contact details overleaf).

Don't forget to update your continuing professional development (CPD) with the Institute for learning (IFL).

You should register your CPD by the 31st August, however you can still declare your CPD for 2008-2009. You can do this by following the link on the Adult Education website, http://www.cumbria.gov.uk/childrensservices/adulteducation/tutors/IFL_CPD.asp.

Don't forget...

- Dual tutor sessions are still available for all WFL and FLLN courses. To request a dual tutor please ask the team member organising the course.
- Advisory Teachers can look at your scheme of work. Please contact Trix Jones or Judith Keely.
- Djembe drumming sessions are available as part of any course. Please contact the person who arranged your course to book.
