3. Copyright declaration

On some occasions, it may be easier for us to answer your enquiry by sending you a small number of photocopies of archives rather than a detailed search report. The archives in question will almost certainly be in copyright. The Archive Service is permitted to provide you with one copy of a document in copyright, providing that you agree to the following copyright declaration. You must avoid re-copying or publishing the copies that we provide or you may infringe the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 and the Copyright and Related Rights Regulations 2003. A leaflet about copyright is available on request. Please ask us if you need any advice.

All applicants must sign this application and copyright declaration.

I declare that I will not use any copies provided by the Cumbria Archive Service except for private and non-commercial research, and that I will not supply copies to any other person. I understand that if this declaration is false, the copy supplied to me by you will be an infringing copy and that I shall be liable for infringement of copyright as if I had made the copy myself.
