

Spotlight On...Around the World

Recommended Reads

How Big is the World? Teckentrup, Britta		“How big is the world?” asked Little Mole. “Why don’t you go and find out?” replied Dad. Join mole on his epic journey around the world. “The more you look, the more you see” said the whale. Foundation stage
The World Came to My Place Today Readman, Jo		George is unable to go out so muses “I wish the world would come to visit me” His Grandpa shows him how the world indeed comes into the house daily, in food and materials from many different countries. KS 1
Gregory Cool Binch, Caroline		Gregory goes on holiday to visit his grandparents in Tobago. It was so hot, the food was different, he saw sharks whilst swimming in the sea and his cousin didn’t wear shoes! Such a contrast for the cool city boy. KS 1
Grandpa’s Indian Summer Gavin, Jamila		Neetu and Sanjay are going to India to visit Grandpa Chatterji and their cousins Rahul and Radha. They find Calcutta to be a colourful, wonderful and noisy place. Grandpa Chatterji ensures they have an amusing holiday. KS 2
Fox Fables Jago, Dawn Casey		There are 2 Fox fables in this dual language format book - Aesop’s the Fox and the Crane; and a Chinese fable, King of the Forest. Available in most languages including Chinese, French, Panjabi, Polish, Romanian. Fables around the World series. KS 2
All the Colours of the Earth Cooling, Wendy		A collection of poems from around the world, reflecting the differences as well as similarities of children’s lives. The poets invite us to share the experiences of their own childhood, concerns for the world today and hope for the future. KS 2
Traditional Stories from India Naidu, Vayu		India is a country of many contrasts and different languages resulting in a rich oral tradition. Out of this come tales and stories reflecting aspects of everyday life. Each story has a short introduction and regional map. KS 2